OVERVIEW OF THE LECTURE SERIES

The International Day event, which has been a staple for the Faculty for many years, has become a calendar event for the Language, Technology and Research. The event, held in collaboration with the Family and Consumer Studies Section in the School of Technical and Vocational Education (SoTaVE) showcases the Faculty's work in culture, language teaching and learning and culinary Arts and Sciences.

International Day is held the third Thursday in November of each year and is a multicultural showcase. It focuses on aspects of the cultures of various languages which operate in Jamaica but highlights in particular the languages taught at UTech, Jamaica -Spanish, French and Japanese.

Over the years, the International Day event draws participation from the diplomatic corps, government and non-government organizations. Schools, embassies, High Commissions across the island who showcase their talent in dance, singing, poetry recital and dub poetry. Students also get the opportunity to view cultural displays, videos, and participate in games and other fun activities.
